- Fully fenced rear yard

This really offers the quiet sublime of space and rural living without the paddocks to tend to. The owner has recently done a lot of clearing to open up the yard and maximise space making it ready to move in and enjoy. There are currently long-term tenants in place on a periodic lease who would love to stay on but can be given notice for vacant possession if wanted. And out of courtesy to them, we'd love at least 48 hours notice for inspections if possible. We look forward to hearing from you with any questions or to arrange an inspection.
